How was your weekend? Well, to be honest with you, mine was pretty fucked up, but hey I made it through and life is filled with ups and downs. No matter how much you put into anything, no matter how good you try to be at what you do, no matter what, "IT DONT MATTER". I really find it amazing on how careless mutherfuckers are now a-days. I swear I am not supposed to be living in this era. I feel like I got misplaced in the time machine. I think I should be in an era when RESPECT was a way of living and CODE was a lifestyle. I would say that I am not the type of person who gives excuses and I don't except them. Over the past few years, I've had some really punk ass situations that I've had to deal with from some real square ass mutherfuckers. It's situations like these, if back in the day, I would have handled these issues with no second guessing, but it just ain't that easy no more. Now a-days when some fucked up shit happens, you gotta just SWALLOW IT or BLOW THAT SHIT OUT. Believe it or not, those are the first 2 things you do, one or the other before you make a major decision that could effect the rest of your life. I've been pretty successful with being able to "Blow that shit out", and get past it, rather than "swallow it" and let it marinate inside of me and poison me. It ain't easy, but it's the only choice that's gonna keep me making the right decision. But it sucks when your just straight up sick and tired of some bullshit and you really wanna SMASH a mutherfucker who did some bitch ass DISRESPECTFUL shit. This is where I just wish you could step to a fool and just say "you fucked up, and I need you to man up and take this ass whippen like a man with out getting 1TIME involved". Now that's CODE, when someone understands that DISRESPECT is unacceptable and the repercussions are mandatory and you have to face it. But nope, times have changed and fools just think they can say "I'm sorry" and all is good. Hell NO, it ain't that easy, cause now a-days if a mutherfucker is doing dumb shit, trust me, your not the first or the last person their gonna apologize to. So, now you gotta be the bigger person and just "BLOW THAT SHIT OUT" cause you know anything you do outside of that will directly land you in jail. So, you give the mutherfucker a pass, and it makes it look like you did nothing. So, you just find yourself waiting for the day to hear something happened to this ass hole so you can feel some joy of redemption. Life ain't easy, so you better make sure you "BLOW THAT SHIT OUT".

Well, on a totally separate note, I would like to say thank you very much to everyone for all your support on the article I wrote on "AdultCON". The response has been incredible and I look forward to the continued response as the article makes it way to everyone's computer across the globe. If you still haven't check it out, you gotta read it, it's below this Blog.

Sunday was my all day outing day. I went to the DUB Car Show at the LA Convention Center to do some networking and get some photos. It was pretty cool, lots of people like always, and it was really cool that I had several people come up to me to compliment me on the article I wrote on AdultCON. They all had horror stories on their first visit and never returned. After walking around for a while I was ready to bounce but I told myself I had to get at least one pic with somebody before I left and guess who came walking by with security? Kim Kardashian and her sisters. She spoke and I did my best to my eyes at shoulder level cause her ass was literally JUMPING out of her skirt! Her sister Khloe jumped out and wanted to take a picture with me before I had to look like a dork and ask, so I was like cool. Khloe is a banger also!

Well, after we left the DUB show, I got a call from Heth over at Wicked asking me to come by the Wicked "Coming Home" release party if I was in the area, and I said for sure! The party was really cool and it was a trip to see all this real army shit like a real Tank, grenade launchers, bombs, and all kind of shit actual military shit they rented as props for the party. It was really a nice set up and a cool ass party and once again I would like to say thank you Heth for the invite!

Well, that's about it for me, and thank you for reading all of this. In closing, I just want you to do your best and make the right choice when dealing with some fucked up shit, just remember to "BLOW THAT SHIT OUT".

Much respect,
